DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement:

- a. There is no mention in the originally filed application of a drill.
- b. There is no mention of an electric device in the originally filed application.
- c. There is no mention of a chuck in the originally filed application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hawley (US 166,004) in view of Chisholm et al. (US 1,069,854). Hawley ('004) discloses a device comprising a solid circular disc (A) having an upper surface and a lower surface and a central bore in the axial direction (see Figs. 1 and 2). One of ordinary skill in the art would understand that a shank passed through the bore, to transfer for from or two the disc. A plurality of generally rectangular upwardly and downwardly extending blades having upper and lower ends are disposed with the upper and lower ends above and below the disc thereby forming a frameless structure and configured and dimensioned to extend beyond said upper and lower circular disc surfaces in an axial direction, as well as extending outwardly in said peripheral direction away from the disc, and wherein each of said blades is inclined at about 40 to 50 degrees from where a radius of the disc intersects the blade (see Figs. 1 and 2). The blades are slightly curved rather than completely flat. Chisholm ('854) is relied upon as evidence the flat blades are recognized in the art as an alternative to curved blades (see page 1, lines 79-81).

Response to Arguments

5. That the applied references do not mention a chuck of an electric drill, is another aspect in which they are identical to the instant application as filed.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
